

TSL 1000

TESL INTENSIVE SUMMER PROGRAM

Spend your summer at the UCalgary campus in beautiful Calgary, Canada — the gateway to the Canadian Rockies. Calgary is Canada's fourth largest city. It is young, educated, and diverse.

The Teaching English as a Second Language Intensive Summer Program at the University of Calgary is an innovative curriculum of four courses delivered by industry experts in an intensive one-month format. This certificate will teach you the fundamentals of communicative language instruction, classroom dynamics, and the knowledge of teaching skills and systems needed to work in the ESL and EFL fields with confidence. This program, when combined with a 20-hour teaching practicum, meets the course requirements for TESL Canada Professional Certificate Standard 1.

COURSES

TSL 108: LINGUISTIC STRUCTURES (30 HOURS)

A review of the structure of language and possible interactions between the first and second language. The three basic language structures of phonology (sound structure), morphology (word structure), and syntax (sentence structure) will be illustrated on a number of levels.

TSL 120: TSL FUNDAMENTALS (40 HOURS)

An introduction to the field of language learning and teaching a second language with a focus on the principles of classroom management and lesson planning in the communicative language classroom. This will include concepts such as increasing student interaction in the classroom, using effective teacher language and logical staging of various lesson types.

TSL 131: TEACHING READING, WRITING AND GRAMMAR – ESL (30 HOURS)

An exploration of the theoretical and practical aspects of the reading and writing process including teaching strategies and skills, and reading and writing for specific purposes. Additionally, review what is known about teaching grammar in a second language while concentrating on pedagogical techniques. Cover critical and innovative approaches to teaching grammar and learn specific strategies for the ESL classroom. Finally, cover systematic and principled procedures for teaching vocabulary.

TSL 132: TEACHING SPEAKING AND LISTENING – ESL (30 HOURS)

A review of current classroom techniques that promote active listening and speaking. In particular, how to effectively use the communicative method of second language learning through group discussion, modelling, games and activities. Includes an overview of the International Phonetic Alphabet, how sounds are produced in a variety of languages, and what practical teaching techniques can be used to correct common problems with pronunciation in a second language.
